

1. DISORIENT (VERB): Baffle

Synonyms: puzzle, bewilder Antonyms: orient, balance

Example Sentence:

Students become pretty much disoriented when they are asked career related questions.

2. STIRRING (ADJECTIVE): Rousing

Synonyms: stimulating, inspiring Antonyms: boring, monotonous

Example Sentence:

Civil disobedience movement was literally stirring.

3. IMPERVIOUS (ADJECTIVE): unable to be perpetrated

Synonyms: immune, impenetrable Antonyms: affected, susceptible

Example Sentence:

They built an impervious layer of basaltic clay.

4. ENGORGE (VERB): gulp down

Synonyms: englut, guzzle Antonyms: fast, diet

Example Sentence:

He engorged the food at the dining table yesterday.

5. DAEMON (NOUN): Demon

Synonyms: devil, vampire Antonyms: angel, God

Example Sentence:

At times he acts as a daemon.

6. VAPID (ADJECTIVE): boring

Synonyms: innocuous, tedious Antonyms: exciting, interesting

Example Sentence:

Roy is a vapid movie I have ever seen.

7. COMPLAISANT (ADJECTIVE): amiable

Synonyms: compliant, friendly Antonyms: antagonistic, discontented

Example Sentence:

He is a complaisant man.

8. ADO (NOUN): Fuss

Synonyms: confusion, stir Antonyms: calm, peace

Example Sentence:

These guests are making ado at my place.

9. INGENIOUS (ADJECTIVE): skilful

Synonyms: clever, creative Antonyms: dull, foolish

Example Sentence:

She explained an ingenious trick to remember the tables.

10. PROMINENT (ADJECTIVE): notable

Synonyms: eminent, distinguished Antonyms: unknown, unremarkable

Example Sentence:

This product has many prominent features.

www.toprankers.com