

1. CONSPICUOUS (ADJECTIVE): obvious

Synonyms: clear, apparent

Antonyms: hidden, concealed

Example Sentence:

Her conspicuous lack of warmth confirmed that they were no longer friends.

2. CONSPIRE (VERB): to plot, scheme with someone

Synonyms: collude, connive

Antonyms: disagree, neglect

Example Sentence:

I had a persecution complex and thought, people were conspiring against me.

3. CONSTERNATION (NOUN): a feeling of anxiety or dismay

Synonyms: distress, disquiet

Antonyms: happiness, calmness

Example Sentence:

His decision caused consternation among his colleagues.

4. CONSTRAIN (VERB): restrict

Synonyms: curb, restrain

Antonyms: allow, assist

Example Sentence:

Women are too often constrained by family commitments.

5. CONSTRUE (VERB): To understand or explain the meaning of

Synonyms: define, infer

Antonyms: confuse, fail

Example Sentence:

The waiter construed my smile as assent.

6. CONSUMMATE (ADJECTIVE): perfect

Synonyms: supreme, polished

Antonyms: incomplete, imperfect

Example Sentence:

She acted the part with consummate skill.

7. CONTAMINATE (VERB): to make impure

Synonyms: pollute, infect

Antonyms: cleanse, purify

Example Sentence:

The town's water-supply has been contaminated by chemicals from the factory.

8. CONTEMPLATIVE (ADJECTIVE): thoughtful

Synonyms: reflective, introspective

Antonyms: ignorant, disdainful

Example Sentence:

He is a quiet, contemplative sort of a chap.

9. CONTEMPT (NOUN): very low opinion; scorn

Synonyms: derision, disrespect

Antonyms: regard, respect

Example Sentence:

She spoke with utter contempt of her husband's behaviour.

10. CONTEND (VERB): argued

Synonyms: asserted, confronted

Antonyms: agree, comply

Example Sentence:

She contended that taxes were too high.