

1. REGIME (NOUN): administration

Synonyms: government, reign

Antonyms: disorganisation, mismanagement

Example Sentence:

Greater ties with other countries are a strong proof of impactful regime.

2. DIFFERENTIAL (NOUN): contrast

Synonyms: difference, divergence

Antonyms: accord, same

Example Sentence:

There is the differential between petrol and diesel prices.

3. CLUSTER (NOUN): group

Synonyms: array, band

Antonyms: individual, one

Example Sentence:

I saw clusters of orange flowers.

4. CONSUMPTION (NOUN): devouring

Synonyms: utilization, expenditure

Antonyms: growth, improvement

Example Sentence:

Rate of energy consumption is very high in this country.

5. ANOMALY (NOUN): aberration

Synonyms: abnormality, irregularity

Antonyms: conformity, regularity

Example Sentence:

This kid is born with anomaly.

6. DAMPEN (VERB):moisten

Synonyms:dabble, bedew

Antonyms:dry, dehydrate

Example Sentence:

Owing to excessive watering, this area has now become dampen.

7. PAUCITY (NOUN):absence

Synonyms:dearth, inadequacy

Antonyms:affluence, abundance

Example Sentence:

There has been paucity of water in this area.

8. EXEMPTION (NOUN):exclusion

Synonyms:dispensation, release

Antonyms:liability, responsibility

Example Sentence:

Vehicles may qualify for exemption from tax.

9. CRITICAL (ADJECTIVE):condemning

Synonyms:unfavourable, disparaging

Antonyms:laudatory, praising

Example Sentence:

The judge made critical remarks on his speech.

10. SLATED (ADJECTIVE):scheduled

Synonyms:contracted, reserved

Antonyms:free, liberated

Example Sentence:

London shows are slated for late July.